R E S O L U T I O N

6 Quilliam

8 WHEREAS, The Honorable Travis A. Peeler merits every 9 distinction and honor which this House affords, but due to lack of 10 consideration on somebody's part--his parents', members of the 11 Constitutional Convention of 1875, or Pope Gregory XIII in pro-12 viding the calendar now in use--there was a conflict between the 13 date of his birth and the inaugural ceremonies of January 17, 14 1967; and

15 WHEREAS, It was with great regret that his fellow members of 16 this House postponed the birthday celebration he so justly deserved
17 in deference to those other auspicious activities, and his natal 18 day passed without being marked by his colleagues; and

19 WHEREAS, This brilliant young attorney, member of the law
20 firm of Pritchard, Peeler and Smith, has been a staunch Democrat 21 almost from the date of his birth (January 17, 1925), which is 22 placed in parentheses because in this House we have learned not to 23 have any undue preoccupation with age--and with friend Peeler, 24 this is particularly wise in view of his well-known feelings on 25 the subject; and

26 WHEREAS, Now serving his fourth term, Travis is an outstand-
27 ing member of the House, and has a personality which makes him 28 well-liked by his associates; and

29 WHEREAS, It is the wish of the House of Representatives of 30 the 60th Legislature that restitution be made, that the attention 31 and consideration which were denied yesterday be restored, and 32 that we join his wife, Jane, and children, Sally and Paul Wylie, 33 in celebrating with him a belated birthday; now, therefore, be it

34 RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the State of 35 Texas, That we wish our colleague, Travis A. Peeler, a "Happy 36 Birthday" yesterday; and, be it further

37 RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for him
38 as a memento of the happy occasion.
